Linda Heiny Clinic

Date: Sunday June 12, 2011

Linda is a well known and highly respected horsewoman whose experience with horses encompasses a wide range of disciplines and breeds, all spanning a career of over 30 years. Best known for her ability to communicate with and motivate both the horse and it's rider, she offers dressage and balanced seat instruction. While dressage is her emphasis, she has a background in show jumping, foxhunting, point to point racing, eventing and dressage.

Clinic Rate: $55
for 45 minute private session.

Stalls are available by reservation.
Trailer hookups (power/water) available by reservation.
Bathroom with shower available in main barn.
Refrigerator and microwave available.

All horses are required to have a current negative Coggin's test. Riders must wear ASTM certified helmets at all times when mounted and sign a liability release.
